

Blind cords and chains can kill children

Looped blind cords and chains are dangerous. They can strangle a child, and have led to the deaths of children.

Act now to ensure that all cords and chains are kept securely out of the reach of babies and children.

For further safety advice for your area please contact:
Staffordshire Trading Standards on 08453 303 313 or Stoke-on-Trent Trading Standards on 01782 234 234

Staffordshire & Stoke-on-Trent Local Safeguarding Children Boards;
'working together to help you to keep your children safe'.

Further guidance & advice for parents, carers & professionals is now available.

Please visit: www.staffsscb.org.uk/blindcords or www.safeguardingchildren.stoke.gov.uk for more information on how you can keep your child safe from blind cord dangers.

Important guidance on the responsibilities of manufacturers and suppliers of blinds is also available to view at the above web addresses.